By this writ petition, the petitioner company has challenged the Award of the Labour Court dated 21.11.1992 whereby the reference made on the demand of the Union in respect of three workmen has been answered in the affirmative.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the three workmen have been reinstated, the amount due to them has been paid and their pay has also been fixed.

Learned counsel for the workmen has not disputed the above position.

In view of the above, no further grievance survives.

The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. Record be sent back.
